

In This Issue of Saving Military History One Soldier at a Time

Memorial Day Remembrances

From the hallowed hills at Arlington National Cemetery to the stateside National Cemeteries and the worldwide ABMC locations; today we show special honor to those that gave the ultimate sacrifice during their service.

In this issue we highlight a few of the artifacts and photo honorarium from our collection for men Killed in Action.

All of us would like to wish that you and your families are healthy and safe during these challenging times. We at the Sons of Liberty Museum and Army Air Corps Library and Museum continue to honor those that answered the call to serve and made sacrifices for others.

While we are not out in the public right now, we continue to work on items in the collection for preservation and display. We continue in our mission of saving military history one soldier at a time.

We have updated both home pages with material and photos and added a lot of content on the Sons of Liberty Website. For those that are interested in D-Day, we have just posted the "Report by the Supreme Commander to the combined Chiefs of Staff on the Operations in Europe of the Allied Expeditionary Force for 6 June 1944 to 8 May 1944". This was given by General Dwight Eisenhower. This is a lengthy but concise history of the Allied victory in Europe in World War II. [\[Read About SHAEF\]](#).

MIA's - Missing in Action

We have information on over 90,000 MIAs. This includes most all the World War II MIAs and some from World War I, Korea, Vietnam and the Cold War.

With our strategic partners, the MIA Recovery Network, we want to tell the last chapter in the life of these Citizen Soldiers.

We would also like your help in telling the first chapters of the lives of those still Missing in Action. Do you have service photos of a family member that is or was MIA? News articles? Service related material?

Material on Army, Navy, Air Force and Marines MIAs:

Air Corps:

X-Files - Buried Unknowns

There are many citizen soldiers whose body was recovered, but they are unidentified. There are thousands of these unknowns buried in American Battle Monument Cemeteries around the world. They are also known as X-Files.

Material on Army, Navy, Air Force and Marines X-Files can be found:

Awards, Rosters Unit Documents

We need you ! A continued big thanks to our fantastic army of volunteers. We have much more so if you can type and have a couple hours each week we can use you !

Army, Navy, Marines, Air Force

We have received material on many units and are hoping to compile much more.

Unit Citations, Awards, Transfers, Rosters

Many groups received unit citations during their particular conflict. The paperwork, in triplicate, would include a roster of all assigned and attached personnel. We are seeking and requesting copies of those roster documents. Please search your papers, talk to your association and help us out with this information and get them to us pronto!

Attention Website Owners & Veteran Associations

Many WWII veterans organizations have shut. Many these organizations had developed some type of website, some with enormous amounts of data and history. Sadly, many had/have not made provisions for their website to be continued and thus when the bill stops being paid, the website disappears and all the work and information is lost. We want to help and we need you to help us. If you know of a disbanding group, please have them get in contact with us; we would like to bring their website and information under our wing. If they want to continue to maintain it we can give them access to continue that as well. One of our top goals for this and every year is to preserve this history not lose it!

Not a WW2 unit? That's ok. We are also interested in your history and want to help preserve it. Korea, Vietnam and all other conflicts.

If your organization has physical materials such as uniforms, patches, photos and other memorabilia do you have plans for them when you cease operations? We would be honored to be the custodian of your group's history.

Preserve This History, Honor the Service,
Provide Education For Future Generations.
